

Peacebuilding and Partnership Opportunities

Culture and Development Office

Who We Are

The Peace Campus is an iconic and innovative community civic space designed to promote peace-building initiatives, provide opportunities for collaboration and offer a variety of facilities, services and amenities which foster cross-community engagement.

What We Offer – Community and Unity

The Campus offers a range of affordable multi-use bespoke hire spaces for communities, cultural and youth services as well as a performance stage and café area; all designed to meet the needs of diverse communities, individuals, groups and organisations.

Our Goals

The aim is to establish the Peace Campus as a central hub for all communities, peace partnership development and provide a welcoming environment for everyone to meet together, collaborate and engage in positive change and expression.

Working With Us

Peace partnerships are at the heart of everything we do and offer. When it comes to creative collaborations we support, as well as develop and facilitate co-funding and research projects, peace programmes, knowledge sharing, talks, events, conferences, workshops, symposia, training, cultural activities and more. We strive to enable new connections, innovation and alliance building, as we network to extend the message of peace.

Get in touch with us to discover how we can work together.

We look forward to hearing from you.
